'Reel' the reader in!

Fishing Tackle

For WRITING

First of all, you will need a pot of Varied Bait – S.P.C. This means that you need to include:

- ☑ Varied Sentences & varied sentence starts;
- ☑ Varied Punctuation, such as . ? , ! & apostrophes;
- ☑ Varied Conjunctions.

Next, you'll need some lunch!

The Story Sandwich reminds you to plan carefully when writing & to have a tasty & enjoyable beginning, middle - and end! Remember to link the parts of your story using time words.

Mmm...
Looks tasty!

Remember that 'Salt & Pepper' is what gives your sandwich flavor. Make sure that you add adjectives and noun phrases! Without it your writing will be dull, boring & bland.

Make sure that you check your use of SPAM in your sandwich, i.e.

- Spelling;
- Punctuation;
- Adjectives;
- Makes sense.

To add even greater flavour, you will need to add a dash of '57 or More Alternatives – Said Sauce'!

Alternatives to the words 'said' give clues into what types of characters you are writing about.

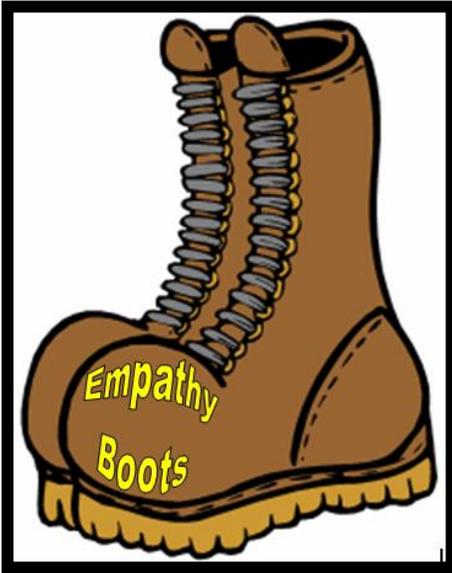

To wash your lunch down, you'll need a drink! So remember to use 'Sense Impressions – Fizzy'!

Try to include what is:

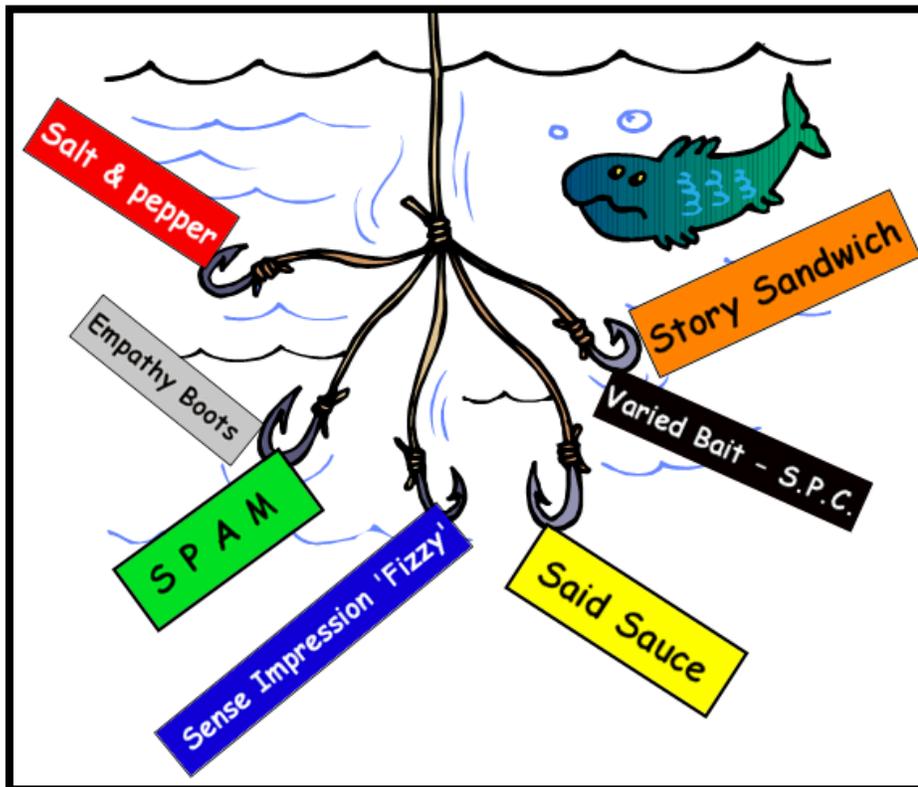

- Seen;
- Heard
- Smelt;
- Tasted;
- Felt.

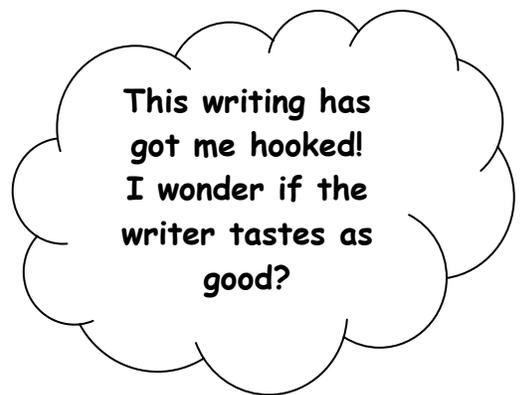

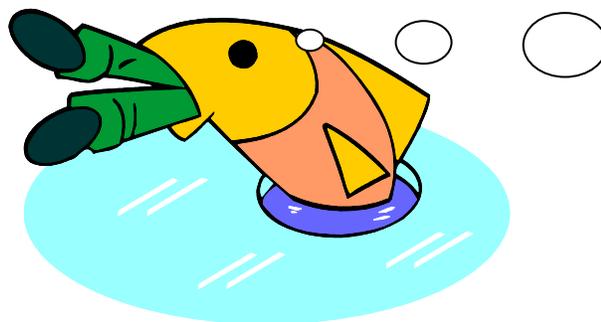

One way to think about how your characters are feeling is to put on your 'Empathy Boots'.

Try to imagine what you would feel if you were your character.

So, remember to 'reel' the reader in using all of the 'Fishing Tackle' for writing.
