WAGOLL

Monster or Mirage?

On Wednesday – 4th January 1933 – a strange sight was witnessed by a local doctor whilst walking on the shores of Loch Ness in Inverness.

When interviewed, the witness, Dr Frasier (aged 56, from Farr in Invernesshire) was adamant he saw a monstrous beast, with a long thin, neck and four large flippers swimming and on the surface of the loch. Could there be a monster in the depths of Loch Ness?
