

WALT: use apostrophes for possession

*

Rewrite the sentences using a possessive apostrophe.

The teeth belonging to the tiger were sharp.

e.g. The _____ teeth were sharp.

The buns belonging to Mummy were all eaten.

_____ buns were all eaten.

The bath belonging to Sophie was empty.

_____ bath was empty.

The keys belonging to Daddy were jingling.

_____ keys were jingling.

The chips belonging to the cafe were delicious.

The _____ chips were delicious.

The shopping bag belonging to Mummy was heavy.

_____ shopping bag was heavy.

WALT: use apostrophes for possession

**

Rewrite the sentences using a possessive apostrophe.

The teeth belonging to the tiger were sharp.

e.g. The _____ teeth were sharp.

The buns belonging to Mummy were all eaten.

The bath belonging to Sophie was empty.

The keys belonging to Daddy were jingling.

The supper belonging to Daddy had disappeared.

The chips belonging to the cafe were delicious.

The shopping bag belonging to Mummy was heavy.

WALT: use apostrophes for possession ***

Write you own sentences with a possessive apostrophe in each one.

e.g. The tiger's teeth were sharp.

